The drawings are objected to in accordance with 37 CFR 1.84(b), for containing black and white photographs in Figures 3-8. Photographs, including photocopies of photographs, are not ordinarily permitted in utility and design patent applications. The Office will accept photographs in utility and design patent applications, however, if photographs are the only practicable medium for illustrating the claimed invention. For example, photographs or photomicrographs of: electrophoresis gels, blots (e.g., immunological, western, Southern, and northern), auto- radiographs, cell cultures (stained and unstained), histological tissue cross sections (stained and unstained), animals, plants, in vivo imaging, thin layer chromatography plates, crystalline structures, and, in a design patent application, ornamental effects, are acceptable. If the subject matter of the application admits of illustration by a drawing, the examiner may require a drawing in place of the photograph. In the instant application the subject matter of the application does admit of illustration by a drawing since the parameter screens and patterns may be illustrated by a draftsman in a series of mechanical drawings.

The drawings are further objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the textile roll recited in claims 1-6 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Art Unit: 3765

The disclosure is objected to for containing errors in grammar and syntax. For example, on page 2, paragraph [0006], line 4, "an output patterns are" should be changed to --output patterns--; on page 3, paragraph [0007], line 8, "thepattern" should be changed to --the pattern--; on page 3, paragraph [0009], lines 3 and 5, "women"s" and "men"s" should be changed to -- women's" and "men's--; on page 4, last line, "preventthe" should be changed to --prevent the--; on page 6, lines 5 and 6, "drawingsoftware" should be changed to --drawing software--.

Claims 14, 24, 29, and 35 are objected to for containing grammatical errors. In claim 14, line 3, "a" should be deleted. In claim 24, line 4, "parts" should be changed to --part--. In claim 29, line 3, "the desired" should be changed to --a desired--. In claim 35, line 2, "into" should be changed to --in--.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 25, 29, and 43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 25, lines 1-2, applicant recites "said defining a pattern comprises defining boundary powers for said pattern which are reduced at edges of the pattern". The meaning of this recitation is unclear. How is a pattern defined by "boundary powers" that are "reduced at edges of the pattern"? The specification does not appear to clarify this matter since the only mention of a "boundary power" occurs on page 5, lines 1-2 where applicant states that the "low boundary power keeps the patterns from visibly overlapping when combined together". The same comment applies to claim 43. Clarification is necessary if claims 25 and 43 are not cancelled in response to this Office action. No new matter may be added. In claim 29, line 3, applicant recites "wherein will be in the final garment". Neither claim 29 nor the disclosure recites what will be in the final garment in the context of the recited claim language.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Costin (U.S.P. 5,990,444). The patent to Costin discloses a method comprising using a computer 205, Fig. 40 to form a pattern 212 on only a part of a total textile roll 209, the textile roll having a width that is sufficient to enable forming an entire garment from the roll and using a laser 201, 203, 206, 207 to form said pattern on said roll.

Claims 1-3, 13, 18, 19, and 26-29, insofar as definite, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Martin et al (U.S.P. 6,002,099). The patent to Martin et al discloses a method comprising using a computer ("Numerical Control Computer", Fig. 10C) to form a pattern (see the oval portions on the pants legs in Fig. 10C) on only a part of a total textile roll, (the textile roll formed by the cylindrical portions of the pants garment that each constitute roll portions as shown in Fig. 10C) having a width that is sufficient to enable forming an entire garment from the roll and using a laser 1030 to form said pattern on said roll. With regard to claim 13, note that the laser 1030 forms the pattern on the material in a single pass across the material (see col. 14, lines 46-49). With regard to claims 18 and 19 note the fractal type pattern shown in Fig. 6A. With regard to claim 26, note that the oval pattern is formed on a plurality of separated pieces since a plurality of pants are moved along the motorized carrier shown in Fig. 10C. Each one of these pants constitutes a separated piece on which an oval pattern is formed.

Art Unit: 3765

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4,5,13,14,17,25,30,32, and 43, insofar as definite, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Costin (U.S.P. 5,990,444). With respect to claim 4 it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill that the range of widths of roll 209 could be chosen as 60 inches or greater since applicant has presented no evidence of the criticality of this claimed range. In re Hoeschele, 406 F.2d 1403, 160 USPQ 809 (CCPA 1969). The same comment applies to claims 14 and 30. With regard to claim 5 it would have been deemed obvious to one of ordinary skill that a plurality of parts are cut from the roll 209 of Costin after finishing the pattern since the various patterns 212 are to each other in terms of shape and texture. Therefore they must belong to separate garment parts which must be cut from the roll in order to function as separate parts. With regard to claim 13 it would have been deemed obvious that the laser may form a pattern in a single pass since the mirrors 206 form a part of the laser since they direct the laser beam while moving to form the pattern. These mirrors may move in a single pass to form a particular pattern.

Claims 14,16,22,30-37,42, and 43, insofar as definite, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Martin et al (U.S.P. 6,002,099). With respect to claims 14, 22, and 30 it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill that the range of width over which the pattern may be formed may be chosen to be 60 inches or more since applicant has presented no evidence of the criticality of this claimed range. In re Hoeschele, 406 F.2d 1403, 160 USPQ 809 (CCPA 1969).

Claims 6,15,20,21,23,24, and 38-41 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 7-12, and 44-46 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 5.
